

NOVEMBER 2020 VIRTUAL TRAINING SERIES

Chief of Staff Virtual Academy

Chiefs of Staff play a key role in organizations. They are even more critical in times of change and crisis.

This 3-part (2 hr each) virtual training series will share practical advice and useful tools designed for Chiefs and operators who are helping their executives and their organization navigate this turbulent time.

This is a leader development program for Chiefs of Staff by Chiefs. It will be a combination of sharing the McChrystal methodology of the role and interactive learning within small group breakouts with fellow Chiefs.

 Each webinar in the series will be followed up by a recording of the session, resources, and takeaway materials.

Series Price: $495.00

To join other Chiefs to discuss the many dimensions of this role was invaluable and both confirmed how I approach the role as well as stretched my thinking for further growth. I cannot recommend this series enough.”
